Intimations.

BOVRIL AT THE FRONT.

Bovril has played such a conspicuous part in South Africa that it forms no inconsiderable feature of the story. The "Lancet" has had frequent references to Bovril in the reports of the officers of the Royal Army Medical Corps. Nearly every newspaper correspondent has had to refer to Bovril to make his story complete. Rudyard Kipling and Baden-Powell have written their Bovril stories. Over 500 British hospitals and similar public institutions use and prescribe Bovril, not beef tea, but Bovril.

The reason is not far to seek. Bovril is a nourisher as well as a stimulant. It contains the albumen and fibrine, the sustaining properties of the beer. It is this fact, together with its absolute purity, that commends Bovril to physicians and scientists, and proves in practice what it demonstrates in analysis.

HIGH CLASS PORTRAITURE IN ALL

WITH THE EASTERN MAIL.

If the conscientious India Mail Officer died suddenly at his post there should be found written on his heart, says Mr. R. W. Hotswell in St. Martin's Le Grand, the number of bags committed to his charge, and the number of railway waggons in which the bags were stowed. It is these two items which the Officer-in-charge, be he old or the business or new, must constantly have in mind during his 48 hours' railway journey across France and Italy. The serious business of the India Mail Officer's life commences at Calais, whither he has proceeded on Friday morning. It is a busy scene. Upon a steamer being made fast and communication established by means of gangways, swarms of blue-smocked porters stream aboard and disappear into the hold. An instant after the ship disgorges men and bags in a thin blue line—one man, one bag, is the order of the day. The bags are carefully checked into the waggons; and when the last of the consignment is placed under lock and key the India Mail Officer adds to his list the number of bags in his possession.

Good-bye, Calais! Sleep, until Paris is reached, and then more waggons—the French Travelling Post Office—are added to the train. At Modane, the frontier town, there is much bustle, many formalities, in which the two great items of the number of the bags and alleges play the principal part, and then through the Mont Cenis Tunnel into Italy. Sleep, with interruptions at Turin and Bologna, until the blue Adriatic comes into view. Towards midnight there is a sudden cessation of the everlasting grind of the wheels and rattle of the carriages; much knocking at the door—Brindisi at last. The one-man-one-bag-process now commences again, and continues for three weary hours. The scene is interesting, however, and is perhaps not unworthy of record. The first thing that strikes one is the appearance of the porters. They are not of the well-fed, blue-boused Calais type, but are a crew of human beings as could probably not be met with elsewhere except at Port Said, Aden, or Singapore. Tall, short, medium-sized, clothed, very much partially clothed, booted, bootless, young, old, grave and gay, all busily intent on emptying the vans and transferring the mails into the hold of the splendid 20-knot steamer of the P. and O. Company which is made fast to the quay.

At the foot of the gangway stands an officer with a box divided into ten sections, each of which holds ten bamboo sticks—tallies. Each porter that enters with a bag is given one of the tallies, which he delivers at the head of the gangway to an officer who deposits it in another ten-holed box and at the same time shouts out to a clerk sitting at a table near his elbow, under the glare of an electric glow lamp, particulars of the destination of the bag—Hongkong, "Shanghai," "Bombay," "Singapore," "Canton," "Fleet," and so forth, hour after hour. As the box at the top is filled, it is carried to the bottom and replaced by its empty fellow. It is an admirable system of check, which has been introduced from China by the steamship company. Upon the delivery of the last bag accounts are examined; and given that the totals are mutually in accord, the steamer sheers off en route to Port Said, while the officer-in-charge, drenched, retires within the mosquito-curtain of his bed at the neighbouring hotel to dream of home and St. Martin's.

THE WEATHER.

The following report is from Mr. F. G. Figg, Acting Director of the Hongkong Observatory:

On the 27th at 11.27 a.m. The barometer has fallen over S.E. Japan, risen in W. Japan. The depression is moving into the Pacific to the E. of Japan. Pressure is highest over the Yellow Sea.

The barometer is inclined to fall again over China, probably owing to the formation of another depression over Central China. Moderate N.E. winds in the Formosa Channel, and moderate S.E. winds over the N. part of the China Sea. Forecast:—moderate E. to S.E. winds; showery.

LEGAL EXPENSES.

One sign of the times on account of the depreciation in the dollar is seen in the publication of the new orders and rules as to fees and percentages to be taken in the Supreme Court of Hongkong, and also for the taking of costs in the Summary Jurisdiction of that Court. These orders and rules, made in substitution for those now in force, have been approved by the Legislative Council and are to come into force on the 1st June next. They are to apply to all causes and matters commenced on and after that date, and to all proceedings taken in all causes and matters then pending. Viewing them as a whole, solicitors and court fees have been increased practically by some 50 per cent. on the amount of the old taxation and, in the case of the Probate Jurisdiction the fees chargeable, as from the 1st June, will be actually double. Where the personal estate concerned is under the value of $500—the minimum amount set out in the schedule—the fee is to be $2, and, according to the pro rata ascending scale, where the estate is sworn of the value of under $100,000 the fee is $100. These increases attending actions in judicial proceedings follow as the necessary sequel to the increase in fees recently put into operation under the Stamp Ordinance. Luxury of litigation will be found to be one not so cheaply bought, and Chinese litigants will in future consider that lawyers' advice and time must be paid for at their real worth. At the same time, and having regard to the increasingly large commercial importance of the Colony and the numerous cases where Counsel's opinion and lawyer's advice would be indispensable in the ordinary course of business, the legal fraternity will not be made to suffer by the reduced number of cases and clients which may result to them in consequence of the operation of the new scale of fees. When it is remembered that in almost every profession a shrinkage in the worth of the dollar has been made the ground of compensation this revised scale of legal fees must be regarded as in the nature of compensating allowance to a profession by whom the Colony should undoubtedly be regarded as a good and profitable field for the pursuance of their practice.

THE WATER ACCOUNT.

During the past few months considerable criticism has been evoked by reason of the distress and suffering caused in the Colony last summer through a shortage in the water supply and with a view to the authorities taking every possible precaution to guard against a recurrence of such hardship in case of another drought. A glance at the principal items in the statement of water account for the year ending 31st December last bears out the reports made from time to time regarding the extension of the Colony's water system. In the twelve months a sum of $90,781.86 was expended on the Kowloon water works gravitation scheme, site 1, and on the Tytam Tuk extension scheme, preliminary and temporary works, the outlay was $11,882.59, while the additional reservoir in the Tytam drainage area involved an expenditure of $43,282.08. The maintenance of the city and hill district water works cost $85,710.42, the Kowloon works, $14,471.79, the Shaui-kiwan supply, $133.60, and the works at Aberdeen, $323.72. Water works miscellaneous is put down at $19,083.21 and various extensions, in the way of public fountains in the city, cost $2,104.90. The military contribution of 20 per cent. on the revenue for 1902, viz. $171,949.47 amounted to $34,389.89 and the total expenditure for the twelve months came to $333,602.42. A sum of $18,902.91 was rendered to the Treasury for collection, and the water rates produced the following amounts:—Victoria, $135,032.90; Hill District, $3,705.78; Hongkong villages, $1,969.33; Kowloon Point, Yau-mai, Hung-hom, and Hung-hom West, $11,199.11; Mongkoktsui, $1,052.57 and Hok Un, $669.74. The total amount standing to the credit of the account at the end of the year was $171,949.47 thus leaving a debit balance of $161,652.95. We should not, however, lose sight of the fact that the expenditure on the works at Kowloon, Tytam and Tytamuk are capital charges which will commence to be reproductive and recoup the Colony as soon as they are completed.

THE BUDGET.

In another column we publish a Reuter's telegram setting forth the principal items in the Budget for the year 1903-4. The estimated revenue of £154,770,000 is an increase of £6,985 over the amount stated in the Budget for the past financial year, while the estimated expenditure of £143,935,000 is £32,424,000 less than the sum estimated by the Chancellor of Exchequer in the Budget for the year just closed. From these figures it will be seen that the Budget statement for the ensuing financial year, which was introduced on the 23rd instant, provides a nominal credit balance of £10,835,000. But the most interesting point of the statement is with regard to the reduction of the Income Tax by fourpence in the pound, bringing it down to 11d. Last year, to meet a deficit of £28,574,000 the Tax was raised 1d. to 12d in the £ to produce an additional £2,000,000. It is evident, therefore, that the Government have yielded to the pressure, brought to bear upon them from their own side and to the lessons of the recent elections to the extent that they have taken the fourpence off, which has been considered at home is two pence more than was at one time contemplated. Another important reduction is with reference to the remittance of the duty imposed on imported corn, grain, and meal to produce £2,650,000. From the corn trade two memorials were sent to the Chancellor, one from the National Flour Trade Association, and the other from the importers of millers' offals. The flour dealers found the imports of flour materially declining since the tax of 5d. a cwt. was imposed. This will be seen from the following figures: April, 1901-February, 1902, 16,716,000 cwt. of flour imported; April, 1902-February, 1903, 14,715,000 cwt. of flour imported. Less flour, they argued, meant less business. Hence their demand for a reduction of the tax from 5d. to 4d. On the other hand, all that was good business for the English millers, who had been practically "protected" against their foreign competitors by the tax on flour. Consequently the National Association of British and Irish Millers approached Mr. Ritchie, and requested him to keep things as they are. But a third party has had a word with the Chancellor, viz., the offal dealers. They wanted the tax of 14d. per cwt. on offals taken off altogether. As they claimed that the tax, with its rebate, had been much to the detriment of British and Irish farmers, the general opinion in the trade was that that request would be granted—for political reasons. The tea trade had been awaiting a reduction of the tea duty; and the income-tax payer expected that something would come his way, while the confectioners and jam-makers demanded a reduction of the sugar tax. But the tea and sugar duties together with the duty on coal remains unchanged, and the Chancellor has evidently been content to withdraw only the imposition on those articles affected last year by duties to meet the deficit. With regard to the cost of the wars in South Africa and China, amounting to £217,000,000, of which it is hoped £34,000,000 will be recovered from South Africa and £6,000,000 from China, the financial provision made for the former in the Army Estimates for the past financial year was £63,600, or £22,974,000 since 1899-1900, and for the latter £350,000 or a total, including the two previous years of £6,000,000.

WIRELESS telegraph would surely prove a boon to Kuala Lumpur, F.M.S. at present some of Reuter's wires despatched from Penang reach there in 32 minutes while others take 4 hours and 33 minutes. The other day a wire sent from Penang at 9.50 a.m. reached its destination at 3.17 p.m.; and on the following day a message despatched at 9.8 a.m., set the instrument clattering at Kuala Lumpur at 9.40 a.m.

A VARIETY concert was held at the Catholic Union on Saturday evening. Those who contributed to the harmony of the evening were Miss Danenberg, Miss Alves, Messrs. E. Danenberg, W. J. Terrill, L. Ruchwaldy, G. Koenig, E. Danenberg, F. X. Lopez Dockree and Rogers. Mr. F. C. Barl, who's name also figured on the programme, was absent. Professor Garibaldi gave an entertaining exhibition of card tricks, and the brothers Don and Frank Francis, a musical sketch.

Bring your pictures to LeMunyon's to be framed. He has the very latest patterns in picture moulding, and is sure to please you.—Advt.

It is known that Mr. Chamberlain is unwilling at present, to speak at length upon South African affairs, and that he prefers to wait before making a definite pronouncement upon the results of his recent tour, and the members who are anxious to offer him this unique compliment do not desire that he should make a political speech, but are desirous that expression should be given to the feelings of the people of London and of demonstrating the esteem and regard of the electors of the metropolis for the Colonial Secretary.

It is stated in Berlin that the German Government is being invited to give its support to a scheme for a permanent exhibition of German products and manufactures in the United States. The idea seems to be that the exhibition should be attached to the German Consulate-General in New York, and that Consul-General should be authorised to act as chief of a bureau in connection therewith, which shall receive and transmit orders for firms whose samples may be exhibited. It is also proposed that a corresponding branch be opened in Chicago, and possibly other cities.

PROFESSOR Knosp gave an excellent performance before a good house at St. Andrew's Hall on Saturday evening. It was some weeks since that this gentleman gave his first pianoforte recital in the Colony and although the attendance was not then large, by reason of counter attractions, it is satisfactory to find that his talent is none the less appreciated. The performance opened with a Menuet by Paderewski. Encores were given for "Sérénade Hongroise" (Janczies), "Rondo Capriccioso" (Mendelssohn), and "Etude de Concert en Octaves" (Hettener). Mrs. Jewell sang "Beloved, it is Morn" (F. Alard), "Love's Garden" (Chaminade) and "A May Morning" (Denza), and was recalled. Mr. Graça with his violin artistically rendered Gounod's "Hymne à Sainte Cecile," Pieni's "Sérénade," and a Chopin "Nocturne." Miss Goggin proved to be an efficient accompanist.

I wish to announce to the people of Hongkong that I am now prepared to take portraits in the very latest styles and patterns. Prices reasonable. Yours very truly, C. E. LeMunyon, No. 31 Des Vaux Road, P. O. Box 368. Telephone 390.—Advt.

"SANITAS SANITATUM ET OMNIA SANITAS"

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG TELEGRAPH."

SIR,—The above motto is very suitable for the present season. Although cleansing and whitewashing is going on now for months in the different districts of the Colony, one special point seems to have been neglected and calls for the attention of the Sanitary Board and that is: Vacant houses are seen posted with the notice "To Let," and when one goes to inspect them, generally finds them unsuitable and untenantable for immediate occupation. Why? Because the owners expect new tenants to undertake the repair and whitewashing. With some good exceptions, this is a pure fact. Whitewashing only is not sufficient to cover a thorough cleansing. Cracks and rat-holes must not be left uncorrected and uncemented as also the cesspool in the kitchen which should be properly flushed with disinfectants. Is there any law compelling the tenants to do so? I think not; but it must have one for the landlords to be sure.

Special attention must be paid to bloc's of houses where previously cases of plague have been discovered. Landlords must sacrifice their greed to save their tenants' life.—Yours &c., SANITAS. Hongkong, 27th April, 1903.

TIENTSIN.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

TIENTSIN, 13th April.
It is long since we have had such a momentous event as the death of Jung Lu, which occurred at 4 a.m. on Saturday, and is almost unanimously rejoiced at. As I have on many occasions reiterated in these columns he was by far the most dangerous man in Peking. First, because he was exceedingly shrewd; secondly, because he had a very fine, handsome presence; thirdly, because his intimacy with the Empress Dowager was such as to make his every wish and intention law. A man who after falling, through the disclosure of his evil plans, from his high position in 1880, could work himself back within 12 years to an even more ambitious scale of pre-emption; could superintend the bombardment of the Legations in 1900 and for three years after successfully throw dust in the eyes of the Foreign ministers, and not only occupy a position of increasing importance but also his family in marriage with the Imperial family itself, was a standing menace to progress and honest diplomacy. One cannot but feel that his death has cleared the atmosphere in Peking or withdrawn the bung from imprisoned forces which will result in a clear up taking place. His influence and power have been such that his removal cannot but be momentous in its effects. Gossip has already been busy with predictions of his success as Prime Minister, which he really was, and Yuan Shi Kai's name has been freely mentioned. But unless the Empress Dowager exercises her sovereign will in his favour, it appears to me hardly likely that he is the coming man in Peking. The present royal tour has, of course, given him a great opportunity for attracting the Dowager's notice and winning her favour, and she is also aware that he was a protégé of Jung Lu. On the other hand she is surrounded with those, including of course the so-called Eunuch Li Lien-Ying, who see in Yuan a lynx-eyed opponent of negligence and dishonesty. Not that Yuan is personally a bit more inclined towards integrity than any other Chinese, but he has adopted the rôle of "honest official" to catch the foreign eye, and so far as they know he may stick to it. They are not likely therefore to encourage his preferment right into their very midst. They will point out that Jung Lu was the first instance during the Ching Dynasty of a President of the Board of Revenue being also Commander-in-Chief of the Forces, and they will lay stress without doubt on the extreme danger of such a combination of offices. More than one Censor has been busy criticising Yuan's actions or proposals of late, and there has been a strong tendency to follow the advice laid down in these memorials. An Edict just issued, for instance, does away, with one stroke of the pen, the preparations which have been in progress for months for the introduction of the Stamp Duty, and I believe the stamps are already printed in Japan. A recent memorial which pointed out that the people would revolt has been accepted and the stamp duty is postponed indefinitely. Of course, as every one knows, honestly worked, the stamp duty would only have affected the well-to-do class, and would not have touched the people at all unless the stamps were deliberately misused. The setting aside like this of a scheme formerly agreed to does not to my thinking look as if Yuan was much in favour. His hasty, imperious temper too has made his name unsavoury in official circles, and his enemies far outnumber his friends, not to mention the fact that he is not a Manchur, and has surrounded himself with nothing but Cantonese. All these things considered I should say Yuan is not the man, at present. Who is? Ah, that is a difficult question. Kwei Chun, his really old uncle from Szechuan, is sniffing round; Wang Wen-shao and Lu Chuan-bu are all in the proper order, while Wiley Sheng Tufen is in Peking and on the spot.

An Edict has been issued befitting Jung Lu to the skies and granting him posthumous rank as Count, and Tutor to the Throne, also Tis. 3,000 for his funeral expenses. He is referred to therein more than once as patriotic and loyal. He certainly could not have been that and the foreigners' friends also in 1900! Matters continue to get worse in the city here, and it is stated the wholesale grain shops are preparing to close, and the supplies will be thereby cut off from the smaller ones. If this takes place strikes and riots may be almost certainly expected. It is serious enough when the people cannot pawn anything.

The Court is expected to leave Peking for the 16th for Tan-ho, a country place where Emperors of old were wont to sojourn and where there is a Palace of solts. Why they are going at all is unknown and how long they will stay. But the visit is, I believe, nominally only of a few days. Jung Lu's death may hasten the Court's return to Peking. There are still sinister rumours, however, that the absence is for a purpose and that evil is intended. So far as I can make out from rather vague statements in the native press the Ministers were invited to witness the review at Peking, but declined to go, probably, without their guard, which would in turn be declined by the Chinese. It is not likely the Ministers would go into quite such a man trap as the 10,000 troops at Peking might prove, especially when Boxerism and rumours of all kinds are prolific around Peking.

Dr. Penicost is holding a series of meetings here and drawing full houses, as well he may. Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Little have passed through on their way to Peking, and in about two weeks' time Mr. Little will come down and hold some meetings in conjunction with the local committee of the Tien Tzu Hui.

Mr. W. Ramsay, superintendent engineer with Messrs. Butterfield & Swire, and Mr. J. M. Henderson, foreman, boiler-maker, at the Kowloon Dock, go home on leave by the German mail.

THE RISE IN SILVER.

AND THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK.

It is reported in commercial circles that the unwillingness on the part of the United States to part with any quantity of her silver holdings at a time when some demand exists for the white metal has helped the rise in the value of silver recently. This appreciation has been further stimulated, so it is said, by the action of Russia who is buying largely in anticipation of a y eventually that may rise in connection with the present ominous political outlook. In this connection it may be interesting to note that news has reached an official quarter in London from St. Petersburg to the effect that an agreement of great importance has either been, or is about to be, come to between the Russian and Chinese Governments, for the keeping of all the funds of the latter at the Russo-Chinese Bank in Peking. If this agreement be carried out, it will be a severe blow to those British institutions which have acted, wholly or in part, as the Chinese Government's bankers; and as the Russo-Chinese Bank is in reality a Russian Government institution, it is not impossible that a protest may be forthcoming.

There is far more gravity underlying the situation than is apparent to "the man in the street," and it is believed that the recent action on the part both of Russia and Japan in buying up all the available supply of Cardiff coal in the East, coupled with the anxiety of the latter to provide a sufficient supply of stores, tend to portend events of some magnitude in the near future. The people in Japan are excited over the present position of affairs and not much will be required to set them to take the offensive if Russia assumes an attitude aggressive to the people of the Land of the Rising Sun.

ANOTHER RIVER STEAMER.

FOR THE HONGKONG-CANTON TRADE.

Messrs. W. S. Bailey & Co. are a ain well before the local shipping community by reason of their having secured another large shipbuilding order. The new steamer, which is to be named Kwong Tung, will be constructed on somewhat similar lines to the Shiu On and Kwong Chow now on the river run. She will be of steel throughout and fitted in the most modern style. Electric light will be installed, and hot and cold water laid on to all her state-rooms. Her tonnage is to be about 1,400 and length 200 feet. The order is from a Chinese syndicate.

THE "ZAFRO" MYSTERY.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

The Zafro mystery, in which $50,000 gold is alleged to have disappeared from the bullion room of the China Manila S.S. Zafro, while on a voyage from Hongkong to Manila, will come before a special jury at the Hongkong Supreme Court at 11 a.m. next Thursday. The China Manila Co., it appears, are disputing that the money was ever put aboard their ship, while on the other hand the Chinese shipper is calling for refundment.

SALE OF CROWN LANDS.

THIS AFTERNOON.

A public auction sale of Crown land was held this afternoon, at the offices of the Public Works Department.

The first of two lots to be put up was Garden Lot No. 19, adjoining the residence of Mr. J. R. Michael and held for a term of 21 years. The lot comprises an area of 3,308 square feet, with an annual rent of $8. The upset price was $148. Mr. J. R. Michael offered $268 and there being no bid against him he secured the lot. We understand that it is the purchaser's intention to fill up this unsightly gully on the hill side running down to Kennedy Road and lay it out as a garden contiguous with the tennis court to the east of his present property.

The other was Inland Lot No. 1683, at Macdonnell Rd. held for 75 years, commencing from 25th March, 1901, with option of renewal at a Crown rent, to be fixed by H.M. Surveyor, for a further term of 75 years. The area is 13,742 square feet, annual rent $80, and the upset price was $3,160. There were only two bidders—Messrs. In Yuk Kwan and Ho Ngok Lau. The former started at $3,500, rose to $3,550, and then on to $3,600, and advanced by another $100, when Mr. Ho Ngok Lau offered $1,000 and secured the property.

The Reverse in Somaliland.

LONDON, 24th April.
The recent reverse in Somaliland was to Col. Plunket's column, which consisted of 160 African Rifles, 48 of the 2nd Sikhs and two Maxims. The column was attacked by the Somalis at close quarters and 180 men and 10 officers were killed out of a total British force of 220. General Manning is marching to extricate Col. Cobbe.

Mr. Balfour has announced that the Government will not participate in the Bagdad Railway scheme.

The Budget.

The Budget shows an estimated expenditure of £143,955,000 and a revenue of £154,770,000; the Income tax is to be reduced by four pence in the pound, involving £8,500,000, the Corn duty is to be remitted involving £2,000,000, the Sugar, Coal and Tea duties are not touched. Of the cost of the wars in South Africa and China amounting to £217,000,000, it is hoped to recover £34,000,000 from South Africa and £6,000,000 from China.

Consols rose 1/2 on the Budget, which is generally well received, though the opposition styles it an electioneering or dissolution budget. An amendment to reduce the duty on tea two pence was rejected and the tea resolution passed.

It is believed that the malicious attempts which are being made in Paris to excite hostility towards His Majesty King Edward will fail utterly.

The Somaliland Reverse.

The British reverse in Somaliland has created the most painful impression in England, and there is much anxiety for further news.

Russia and Manchuria.

Russia has demanded that China signs an agreement, which practically cedes the sovereignty of Manchuria to Russia, excluding other nations therefrom. The German Press declares that Germany has always regarded Manchuria as a Russian sphere and that those interested must settle matters with Russia themselves. The impression at Washington is that Russia's action constitutes a distinct breach of faith with the United States and though no danger of a collision is apprehended, it is expected that the United States, Great Britain and Japan will join in presenting a firm note to China insisting on non-compliance with Russian conditions.

Reported illness of the King.

New York, April 22nd.
King Edward is seriously ill in Rome. A complication of his old ailments has set in and his physicians regard it with alarm. The King was making a tour on the continent and journeyed to Rome with the intention of visiting the Pope.

[By the last mail our London correspondent forwarded a note stating: It is regrettable that the King's health is not more robust. He never disappoints his loyal subjects, but, on the other hand, the physical effort involved is often far greater than they are aware. Most people will be surprised to hear that his own physician sees him almost daily, whilst even the Court Circular officially mentioned the other day that Sir F. Trevelyan as well had what was diplomatically termed an audience. The King has the most delightful manner, and an air of geniality that wins all hearts; but beneath all his outward good humour he suffers much from depression.—Ed., H. K. T.]

THE ATTEMPTED ABDUCTION

ON THE S.S. "SAINAM."

Writing from Canton on 25th inst. a correspondent says: On the s.s. Sainam arriving from Wuchow this morning the captain's attention was attracted by a tumult in the 'tween decks. On proceeding to investigate he was met by the ship's Indian watchmen with two Chinamen, dressed as soldiers, and had endeavoured to forcibly take children from 3rd class female passengers. Another confederate was also found aboard; all three were armed with revolvers. The matter has been placed in the hands of the British Consul.

ISLAND FOR LEPROS.

A COLONY IN THE WEST INDIES.

The Cuban Government is understood to have received proposals from a German scientific association, which is anxious to acquire the Isle of Pines for use as an international leper colony. As a condition to the transfer of the island the association guarantees the care of all Cubans affected with elephantiasis and kindred diseases, thus relieving the Government of all expense in connection with them.

Representatives of the association who have recently visited the Isle of Pines are convinced that the special medical qualities of the mineral springs near Nueva Corona are just what they had long sought in connection with a salubrious climate for the location of a retreat for the unfortunate lepers of the different civilized nations of the old and new world.

UNREST IN CHINA.

STATEMENT BY THE RUSSIAN CONSUL-GENERAL.

There has just arrived at Milan on a holiday Mr. Nikola Kolesoff, Russian Consul-General at Peking. In the course of an interview with a journalist who knew him out in China, Mr. Kolesoff stated that there is every reason to anticipate that Chinese disturbances will soon recommence with increased violence. "The present conditions of peace and order," he said, are ephemeral. Religious frenzy and hatred against the foreigners have now spread throughout the Empire, and are much fiercer than they were two years ago. New literature is published daily preaching destruction to the invaders, the native Christians are persecuted in all directions, and the missionaries are losing their converts. Armed bands are being formed everywhere, for the trade in arms, though forbidden by the convention made with the Powers after the war, flourishes more actively than ever, and German weapons are secretly imported and distributed. At the Legation in Peking preparations for a possible war are going on, and the establishments are all strongly fortified, especially the English one. Should the Legations be besieged again, the Imperial Palace, which is situated in their neighbourhood, could be blown up with shells in a few hours, and the whole town bombarded.

The Consul-General thinks that the whole of the Imperial quarter is mined, and the Germans have also placed batteries on the great town wall. The death of Li Hung Chang rendered the situation still more difficult and threatening.

THE MACKAY TREATY.

Of late we have heard but little of the Mackay Commercial Treaty with China, says the London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian. It may be remembered that it consists of two parts, one settling a variety of matters, the other (clause 8) dealing wholly with likin. The former is in effect a separate treaty between Great Britain and China, with which other Powers have no concern. It comes into effect, I understand, from January 1st next. Clause 8, however, which is the business part of the agreement, stands on a wholly different footing, for it was agreed that before it came into force the other Powers having treaties with China must accept treaties with similar provisions. I now learn that most of the other Powers are in negotiation with China on the subject, and that Germany, Japan, and the United States have substantially accepted this part of the treaty, but that they look upon the 12 1/2 per cent grant to the Chinese in lieu of import duty and likin by Sir James Mackay as too high. They are willing to grant to per cent. The Chinese Government are expected to haggle somewhat over this, but the advantage of a substantial accession to the revenue under the new system will doubtless induce them to give way.

CHINA AND ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION.

The money which China has raised in connection with her participation in the St. Louis Exposition is to be spent in the following manner, says the Universal Gazette. The total amount is £1,750,000, of which £1,500,000 will be devoted to the building of houses and the construction of a garden on the Exposition ground, £1,000,000 will be used for the salaries and travelling expenses of the Imperial Commissioners and their suite, and £1,500,000 will be handed to Sir Robert Hart, the Inspector-General of the Imperial Maritime Customs, for the purchase of various Chinese products to be used as exhibits in the exposition.

The reason why the Chinese Government takes so much interest in the St. Louis Exposition by sending a very important representative to the scene and by spending such a liberal sum of money is because it wants to strengthen its friendly relations with the Government of the United States and to show its appreciation of the kindness of the United States in consenting to the Chinese indemnity on a silver basis, in spite of the fact that all the other Powers have tried every effort to persuade it not to do so.

MR. WITTON IN SIBERIA.

A letter has been received in Manila from Mr. Witton, who is well-known in Hongkong, in which he says, "We have safely negotiated the 6,000 miles of ice snow and slush through Siberia. At Lake Baikal, Mr. Mason and myself arranged for a race with another party, also travelling by sledge. For a while it was interesting but toward the last it became tamer than Santa Mess, our sledge winning in a canter. We did the eighteen miles in little over an hour. Temperature was 13 below zero. I have written an article of about 7,000 words on our trip and intend having it set up in London."

The letter is addressed from the Grand Hotel d'Europe, St. Petersburg, Rue Michel, and is dated March 8. Mr. Witton is at present in London. He expects to be back this way in a few months.

COMMERCIAL LINERS CROWDED.

The recent act passed by the civil commission authorizing the use of commercial liners for transportation to the United States on expiration of service on account of accumulated leaves of absence, has brought about such a state of affairs that transportation on any of the liners bound for the United States will be eagerly sought for during the next month or two.

The rate offered by one of the lines operating between Manila and the States is understood to be $145.00 per capita for this class of traffic, and this fact resulted in the master of the Nippon Maru being offered $300.00 gold by a tourist and his wife anxious to return home by that steamer; but, from statements made by the local agents and by the officers of the steamer, it appears that all the space was booked in Manila and that there wasn't an available spot in which to locate them for the long trip across the Pacific.

There are over a hundred school teachers in Manila who are entitled to transportation by commercial lines to America, and as there are no longer orders permitting the use of transports for this class of traffic, they naturally fill the boats sailing from Manila on the presentation of proper transportation requests.

All of the San Francisco boats touching at this port, says the Manila Cablenews, come by way of Yokohama, Kobe and Nagasaki and touch Hongkong and Shanghai on the homeward trip, and it is claimed that those awaiting transportation at either of the places named take chances on securing berths or passage at all, owing to the number of civilian employees who are entitled to passage from Manila on such steamers, under the new civil commission act.

A passenger returning on one of the recent boats plying between Hongkong and Manila stated to a Cablenews reporter that there were at least a dozen people waiting at Hongkong for transportation on the Nippon Maru but owing to the number of passengers she took from Manila it was an impossibility to accommodate them. "Some of these passengers," said the gentleman, "had return-trip tickets with stop-over privileges which entitled them to space on the steamer selected by them after giving due notice of the boat they desired passage by. In three cases personally known to me the necessary notice was given to the agent of the company in Nagasaki and afterwards verbally expressed to the Hongkong office before the arrival of the boat. The latter office stated that everything was full owing to the fact that civilian employees returning on government transportation had taken up all the available transportation at the Manila end."

Mr. Wolf, of Castle Bros., Wolf & Sons, was seen by a Cablenews representative and the above statement read to him. Mr. Wolf stated that as far as the records of his office were concerned the average number of school teachers and others returning to the States under government permits amount to between eight and nine on each trip and that while all the steamers of the line had been unusually crowded by home going Americans he did not attribute the cause to the government employees handled by the Pacific Mail line and other transportation companies.

The question of the rate quoted as bearing on the subject, Mr. Wolf was unable to discuss, as far as his office as a local agency for his line was concerned, all rates were based on the established tariff, and that the concession granted to the civil government had been arranged in the United States between the home office of the line and the various transportation companies interested.

"We are booking passengers right along," remarked Mr. Wolf, "and it cannot be seen how things could be tangled with respect to cabins and space if the agents in Japanese and Chinese ports were kept advised by returning tourists as to the ship they desired to take passage on. We are allowed so much space Manila end and generally fill it and have been on the lookout for civilian employees to the extent of what our passenger traffic of the class has amounted to on previous sailings."

STEADY ADVANCE OF RUSSIA.

The London correspondent of the Birmingham Post writes in a recent issue of that journal:—

Intelligence has reached a prominent quarter here from St. Petersburg to the effect that the Russian Government propose to invite about a hundred representative commercial men from the United Kingdom to take part in a tour over the great Siberian Railway and its connections as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made. The idea is simply put, I understand of a larger scheme, in which representatives of other prominent commercial nations will share; and, in this regard, I would note that among those who know Russia well there is a feeling of some surprise at the supineness with which our business men as a whole regard the steady advance that country is making in commercial enterprise. I was talking last night with a very shrewd representative of English trade who is thoroughly acquainted with the latest commercial developments of the Russian Empire, and of the manner in which it is curing fresh markets, some of which we ourselves might possess, and he prophesied that within ten years Russia would be found one of our most formidable trade rivals. I may add, in illustration, that I learn to-day that the Czar's representatives have within the last few months recruited many men from the British ship-building firms. I am assured that no fewer than three hundred are now in the Russian dockyards, of whom two hundred are located at Constantine, the intention being to introduce a large number of British workmen into the Russian yards.

CREW SCUTTLES CHINA BOUND SHIP.

"PRINCE GEORGE" ABANDONED.

A report received in Manila by Commander Helm, Chief of the Bureau of Coast Guard and Lighthouse service, relative to the Norwegian barkentine Prince George shows that the ship was abandoned after a deliberate but unsuccessful attempt had been made to scuttle her.

According to a report received from Captain James Miller, of the Coast Guard steamer Tablas, he, after landing the ten castaways at the port of Zamboanga, offered to take the master of the Prince George with him to make a search for his vessel. This offer the Norwegian captain declined and absolutely refused to have anything more to do with the matter.

The Tablas accordingly proceeded on her voyage to Jolo and discovered the Prince George with all sails set about two miles southeast of Dipolod, one of the Samal Islands. The barkentine was boarded. It was found that both her bow and stern anchors had been let go with twenty-five fathoms of chain attached to each, but neither had reached the bottom. A cold chisel and hammers lying upon the deck led to an investigation which revealed the fact that a hole had been cut in the ship's side. There were eleven feet of water in her rising two feet above the cargo in the lower hold. The hole was plugged and the ship cleared of water with her own pumps in four hours and the anchors were hoisted up. The Tablas then towed the Prince George to a safe anchorage on the west side of Tatalan Island and proceeded on her voyage to Jolo, leaving an officer and three men in charge of the derelict. On her return from Jolo the Tablas towed the barkentine into Zamboanga arriving there on the 14th inst.

The Prince George is an iron barkentine of 472 tons net register and had been out from London eleven months bound for China. The length of her voyage is attributed to the fact that her cargo was 800 tons of pitch, a large part of which was stowed between decks. When the ship entered the hot latitudes the pitch between decks melted and ran into the hold, thus putting all the weight in her bottom and making it impossible for her to sail in the light breezes which she encountered. Her bottom too became so foul that she could make but slight headway.

According to the Manila Times, from which this article is republished, Captain Miller reports that neither the ship nor her cargo are in any way damaged and that all that will be necessary to enable her to proceed on her voyage will be a slight shifting of her cargo and scraping her bottom. The master of the Prince George states that he lay becalmed between Cebu and Basilan islands for three days and if this is true why he did not anchor is a mystery as the water there is shallow enough to make it easy.

A board of survey was convened on the 14th and the ship will be held until it arrives at a decision and instructions are received from Manila.

The crew are reported by the doctor as not suffering from beriberi as at first reported but from the effects of living on one kind of food for too long a time. They are all doing well.

TRADE AT VLADIVOSTOK.

The last number of the Board of Trade Journal contains extracts from a report made by the British Commercial Agent at Vladivostok, which states that governmental help has given an impetus to the establishment of private enterprises and merchants in that district, and to the establishment of various private industrial and mining undertakings. From a table published it appears that while from 1895 to 1900 Vladivostok was developing its trade in a normal manner, since the latter year it has been declining. In order to remedy this state of affairs it has been proposed that a free harbour should be established in the European manner, and several other suggestions are now before the Minister of Finance.

T. Y. K. SIGNAL STATION.

IN MID-PACIFIC.

The Toyo Kisen Kaisha which operates the steamships America Maru, Nippon Maru, and Hongkong Maru between the Orient and the United States on a joint schedule with the Pacific Mail and Occidental and Oriental Steamship companies is to establish a signal station on Midway Island in the Mid-Pacific. The island is to be one of the landing places of the Pacific cable and the signal station is to be established when the cable is in operation. When the station is established it is the intention of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha to have its steamers reported from it on the way to and from San Francisco. Midway Island lies about fifty miles out of the ordinary course followed by the lines on the way to Honolulu, so that very little time will be lost in diverting them sufficiently to sight the island and be reported. It is quite probable, says the Manila Times, that the other steamship companies will follow the enterprising lead of the Japanese company and have their vessels reported likewise.

Midway is one of the most interesting islands in the Pacific. In the middle of the last century it was frequently visited by whalers and on several occasions offered a haven for castaways. Later on the Pacific Mail Steamship company, pioneer in the trade between the United States and Orient established a relief station on the island. The station was stocked with coal and provisions but was never used to any extent. Raiders helped themselves to coal and in a few years only slight traces of the station remained. The island is a great sand spit and lies very low. There is not much verdure on it and if, the writer, is correctly informed is without a supply of good water. That deficiency can be met, however, by catching and storing rain water.

Commercial.

TO-DAY'S INTELLIGENCE.

The restriction in transactions continues for the same reason as last reported. Owing to the political outlook and the rise in exchange banks have weakened and remain on offer at $675. INDO-CHINAS are reported sold at $108.50, $109, and $109.50; but sellers for forward delivery would be content to accept less than the equivalent of cash rates. SHELL TRANSPORTS have been sold at $1.50, and are wanted. CHINA SUGARS marked a few weeks ago. The drop in freights between Wuhu and Canton is consequent upon the liners having resumed quoting for this trade. Hankow to Canton; a fix rate is believed to have been done here at 30 cand. per picul. Chinkiang to Canton, for groundnuts, the latest rate paid to an outsider is 55 cand. It is reported that two handysized Bangkok steamers, unable to secure cargoes at Bangkok, have been shifted to the Saigon trade. The slackness in demand from Newchwang to the more southern ports is due to higher produce prices.

SHIPPING AND FREIGHT.

Slackness in the demand for tonnage is partly due to the heavy time fixtures arranged a few weeks ago. The drop in freights between Wuhu and Canton is consequent upon the liners having resumed quoting for this trade. Hankow to Canton; a fix rate is believed to have been done here at 30 cand. per picul. Chinkiang to Canton, for groundnuts, the latest rate paid to an outsider is 55 cand. It is reported that two handysized Bangkok steamers, unable to secure cargoes at Bangkok, have been shifted to the Saigon trade. The slackness in demand from Newchwang to the more southern ports is due to higher produce prices.

SAIL TONNAGE.

No more fixtures of sailing-vessels for New York loading is reported, and the only ships that seem to be booked from hence to that port are the British barques Edipsea and Kentner. The latter, which is to arrive from Shanghai, will take cargo for Baltimore. The American barque Hollister is chartered from hence to Callao. Disengaged vessels include the American schooner Columbia, 772 tons; the British barques Lucia, 640 tons, and Chilford, 2,198 tons; Swedish barque Pharos, 1,271 tons; and the French barque, Guerrier, 1,775 tons.
